

Privacy Policy for Maurelius Apps

This privacy policy describes how Maurelius ("Maurelius", "us" or "we") protects your ("you", "the user") privacy and your data. If you use one of our apps you fully agree to this privacy policy

Data

We never collect or share personal data with our apps.

When you use our apps, you consent to have our databases hold whatever information you send to our backend. Furthermore, you consent to our apps updating in the background whenever there is a pertinent update for you available. This may happen without your being fully aware of the download and update happening.

Changes

Our app or parts of it may change or be updated at any time. Further, this Privacy Policy might change. You can find a link to this policy on the description page of the app. Your continued use of our skill after changes of the Privacy Policy or the skill itself will be seen as your acceptance of both.
